

In honor of Camp Fire USA's 100th birthday this March, Camp Fire Southeast Michigan Council is working to gather 100 stories to include in a Memory Book to be published for the celebration.

100 YEARS/100 STORIES

What are your favorite Camp Fire memories?

REMEMBER WHEN...

"What a surprise when her teeth came out! Our group was winter camping in Paheelo at Camp Wathana and we had made caramel apples for our evening treat. Now Mrs. W., a parent camping with us, was a very proper and beautiful mother. We NEVER suspected she wore dentures until she pulled the apple out of her month and her dentures came out too!"

Your story can be long or short, funny or touching, current or from ages ago.

"I remember my older sister attending camp in the 1940's when they were still using lanterns because electricity had not yet been installed."

BACK IN THE DAY...
